

NEWS IN A NUTSHELL.

The Convention is in session.
"Charley's Aunt" at 8 o'clock.
Sports at the base ball park began at 2:30 this p.m.
All of the mail for the Coast was despatched by the Australia.

For a good shave with no delay go to the Arlington Barber Shop.

"The Corner Grocery" is being presented as a matinee this afternoon.

The 589 Asiatics coming by the Peking are residents here and have returned permits.

The circus did not arrive from Japan Friday. The probabilities are that it will not come.

Mrs. Thirde lectured for more than an hour Friday night upon the subject of the "Hindu Bible."

Al Hoo, a Chinaman, paid $5 and $4 10 cents in the District Court to-day for selling a tainted fowl.

The Hawaiian Mission Children's society will meet at the residence of W. O. Smith this evening at 7:30.

Mr. J. Alfred Magoon, combines a real estate agency with his business as attorney at law. See new advertisement in this issue.

Nineteen Chinamen were up before Judge Perry this morning for gambling. Eight of them paid fines of $11 each and the others were discharged.

The dance at Independence Park Friday night was enjoyed by a number of young people. The dancing contingent was augmented by arrivals from the drill.

Farwell service was given Captain Milap of the Salvation Army at the barracks Friday night. The Captain returned to San Francisco by the Australia.

The dance given by the Myrtles last night was well attended by young society people and proved to be a handsomely conducted affair enjoyed by all present.

C. Scharf, the blind man, has sued the Government for $10,000 damages for injuries sustained at the time he fell into the cellar opposite Williams' furniture establishment.

James I. Dowsett has been appointed guardian of the effects of Annie Parker, infant daughter of the late John Parker. The objections of Samuel Parker were not accepted by the Court.

The autograph likeness of that distinguished statesman and firm friend and advocate of Hawaiian interests, Hon. Jas. G. Blaine, was presented to the American League Friday by Mr. W. H. Severance. The photograph was taken in Washington in 1892 and is considered an excellent likeness. The picture appropriately decorates the room walls of the League and will no doubt serve as an inspiration to its members.

PERSONAL.

Dr. Grossman has returned from Hawaii.

Mrs. C. O. Berger was a passenger by the Australia.

Miss J. Mott-Smith left for the coast by the Australia.

Deputy Attorney-General Robertson returned from Kona to-day.

W. O. Luckland was a passenger for San Francisco by the Australia.

Mr. and Mrs. Hoffnagel left for the Australia for their home in London.

George W. Macfarlane left for the Australia for a short visit to California.

Professor W. T. Brigham of Bishop's museum returned from the volcano by the Kinau.

Mr. and Mrs. Hoffnagel were entertained at dinner Friday evening by Mrs. H. Wilder.

W. H. Cornwell and daughter, Sam Parker and Robert Ballantyne were passengers from Maui by the Kinau.

Battalion Drill Last Night.

Companies A, B, C, E and F had battalion drill on Union square last evening. Lieutenant Colonel Fisher in command. On account of some mistake in the announcement Company D did not turn out. The march was taken from the square out Punaloe to Beretania, in to Fort, down to King, to Nuuanu, to Queen, to Fort, to King again and back to the square, where dress parade was held. The boys did well and Acting-Colonel Fisher was much pleased with the showing made.

The Australia Departs.

The Australia sailed at noon to-day for San Francisco, taking a full cargo and a list of thirty-seven passengers. A large number of people assembled at the dock to see the steamer off. The band was in attendance and played evening airs until the nose of the vessel pointed toward the mouth of the channel. The passenger list appears elsewhere in this issue.

Young People's Society.

The Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor will meet to-morrow afternoon. Topic: "Christ's Love for us: Our Love for Christ." John 13:1; Jer. 31:3; Luke 10:27. A cordial welcome is extended to everyone.

Central Union Services.

Rev. Dr. Huichins will preach in Central Union church at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Morning topic: "The Promises of God." Evening topic: "Lessons from the Rivers."

An Excellent Number.

"The Planter's Monthly" for October is out. It treats in an intelligent manner, sugar, pineapples, ferns, oranges, tea, the bounty system and a dozen other subjects of great interest to the agricultural community.

DIED.

ISENBERG—At Hanover, Germany, September 11th, Bertha Ottile, beloved daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Isenberg, Kekaha, Kauai, aged 18 years.

WEEKLY STAR, $4.00 per year.

THE GREAT CONVENTION.

Called to Order at 3 o'clock THIS AFTERNOON.

Handsome Decorations—The Opening—Who are There and the Work—Mapped Out.

The Nominating Convention was called to order at 3 o'clock this afternoon in the American League hall by J. A. Kennedy, President of the American Union Party. The hall at the opening, was an emblem of beauty and convenience. On the walls the American colors were blended with artistic taste, and either side of the rostrum was graced with the flag of Hawaii and that of America.

Overhead, bunting, streamers in red, white and blue inclined at regular angles to three centers where gorgeous arrangements of Japanese lanterns were suspended. On the Mauna wall a handsome steel engraving of James G. Blaine, presented by Hon. H. W. Severance, appeared, and on the other sides the handsome adornments of the American League hall were displayed. The representation of the great friend of Hawaii, James G. Blaine, and the American flag on the left of the platform were mounted with wreaths of evergreen and attracted a great deal of attention.

The seating capacity of the hall was made as large as possible. Four chairs were placed behind the Speaker's desk for the officers of the Convention. In front of the rostrum, separated from the audience by a stout railing, sat the delegates to the Convention thirty in number. They were:

Club No. 1—J. A. Kennedy, A. W. Keach, T. Lanning, D. L. Naone and Thomas Wright.

Club No. 2—George Smith, J. S. Martin, E. F. Bishop and John S. Oza.

Club No. 3—C. W. Day, W. R. Sims, Julius Asche, J. H. Fisher, Charles Crozier and H. G. Wooten.

Club No. 4—T. B. Murray, Edward Towse, John Ellinger and W. O'Brien.

Club No. 5—John Emmelhut, D. Kellipio, D. P. Kaiana and E. C. Winston.

Club No. 6 (Koolaula and Koolaula-poko)—Wm Henry and Pahia.

Club No. 7a (Kahuku)—W. H. G. Arneam.

Club No. 7b (Waialua)—J. A. McCandless.

Club No. 8a (Ewa)—V. J. Lowrie.

Club No. 8b (Pearl City)—James Torbert.

Outside of the railing, extending to the back door and jammed together as close as possible, were 180 chairs all filled with spectators. The back room, in which standing space was at a premium, contained many others who had come late. The gallery contained a hundred chairs and all were occupied. Reporters for the STAR, Advertiser, Bulletin and Honolulu were present at tables arranged for their convenience to the right of the platform.

Prior to the meeting two special features of the business to come up were given out by delegates. One was that the Convention had decided upon a single plank as a solution of all the objects of the party, and this could be embodied in few words. Those words are all that go to make the significance of the term "Annexation." The next point is a move in favor of D. B. Smith for the Senate to represent the radical element. Two of the delegates are authority for the statement that he would secure the nomination.

Outside of the railing, extending to the back door and jammed together as close as possible, were 180 chairs all filled with spectators. The back room, in which standing space was at a premium, contained many others who had come late. The gallery contained a hundred chairs and all were occupied. Reporters for the STAR, Advertiser, Bulletin and Honolulu were present at tables arranged for their convenience to the right of the platform.

Prior to the meeting two special features of the business to come up were given out by delegates. One was that the Convention had decided upon a single plank as a solution of all the objects of the party, and this could be embodied in few words. Those words are all that go to make the significance of the term "Annexation." The next point is a move in favor of D. B. Smith for the Senate to represent the radical element. Two of the delegates are authority for the statement that he would secure the nomination.

Prior to the meeting two special features of the business to come up were given out by delegates. One was that the Convention had decided upon a single plank as a solution of all the objects of the party, and this could be embodied in few words. Those words are all that go to make the significance of the term "Annexation." The next point is a move in favor of D. B. Smith for the Senate to represent the radical element. Two of the delegates are authority for the statement that he would secure the nomination.

Prior to the meeting two special features of the business to come up were given out by delegates. One was that the Convention had decided upon a single plank as a solution of all the objects of the party, and this could be embodied in few words. Those words are all that go to make the significance of the term "Annexation." The next point is a move in favor of D. B. Smith for the Senate to represent the radical element. Two of the delegates are authority for the statement that he would secure the nomination.

Prior to the meeting two special features of the business to come up were given out by delegates. One was that the Convention had decided upon a single plank as a solution of all the objects of the party, and this could be embodied in few words. Those words are all that go to make the significance of the term "Annexation." The next point is a move in favor of D. B. Smith for the Senate to represent the radical element. Two of the delegates are authority for the statement that he would secure the nomination.

Prior to the meeting two special features of the business to come up were given out by delegates. One was that the Convention had decided upon a single plank as a solution of all the objects of the party, and this could be embodied in few words. Those words are all that go to make the significance of the term "Annexation." The next point is a move in favor of D. B. Smith for the Senate to represent the radical element. Two of the delegates are authority for the statement that he would secure the nomination.

Prior to the meeting two special features of the business to come up were given out by delegates. One was that the Convention had decided upon a single plank as a solution of all the objects of the party, and this could be embodied in few words. Those words are all that go to make the significance of the term "Annexation." The next point is a move in favor of D. B. Smith for the Senate to represent the radical element. Two of the delegates are authority for the statement that he would secure the nomination.

Prior to the meeting two special features of the business to come up were given out by delegates. One was that the Convention had decided upon a single plank as a solution of all the objects of the party, and this could be embodied in few words. Those words are all that go to make the significance of the term "Annexation." The next point is a move in favor of D. B. Smith for the Senate to represent the radical element. Two of the delegates are authority for the statement that he would secure the nomination.

Prior to the meeting two special features of the business to come up were given out by delegates. One was that the Convention had decided upon a single plank as a solution of all the objects of the party, and this could be embodied in few words. Those words are all that go to make the significance of the term "Annexation." The next point is a move in favor of D. B. Smith for the Senate to represent the radical element. Two of the delegates are authority for the statement that he would secure the nomination.

Prior to the meeting two special features of the business to come up were given out by delegates. One was that the Convention had decided upon a single plank as a solution of all the objects of the party, and this could be embodied in few words. Those words are all that go to make the significance of the term "Annexation." The next point is a move in favor of D. B. Smith for the Senate to represent the radical element. Two of the delegates are authority for the statement that he would secure the nomination.

Prior to the meeting two special features of the business to come up were given out by delegates. One was that the Convention had decided upon a single plank as a solution of all the objects of the party, and this could be embodied in few words. Those words are all that go to make the significance of the term "Annexation." The next point is a move in favor of D. B. Smith for the Senate to represent the radical element. Two of the delegates are authority for the statement that he would secure the nomination.

Prior to the meeting two special features of the business to come up were given out by delegates. One was that the Convention had decided upon a single plank as a solution of all the objects of the party, and this could be embodied in few words. Those words are all that go to make the significance of the term "Annexation." The next point is a move in favor of D. B. Smith for the Senate to represent the radical element. Two of the delegates are authority for the statement that he would secure the nomination.

Prior to the meeting two special features of the business to come up were given out by delegates. One was that the Convention had decided upon a single plank as a solution of all the objects of the party, and this could be embodied in few words. Those words are all that go to make the significance of the term "Annexation." The next point is a move in favor of D. B. Smith for the Senate to represent the radical element. Two of the delegates are authority for the statement that he would secure the nomination.

Prior to the meeting two special features of the business to come up were given out by delegates. One was that the Convention had decided upon a single plank as a solution of all the objects of the party, and this could be embodied in few words. Those words are all that go to make the significance of the term "Annexation." The next point is a move in favor of D. B. Smith for the Senate to represent the radical element. Two of the delegates are authority for the statement that he would secure the nomination.

Prior to the meeting two special features of the business to come up were given out by delegates. One was that the Convention had decided upon a single plank as a solution of all the objects of the party, and this could be embodied in few words. Those words are all that go to make the significance of the term "Annexation." The next point is a move in favor of D. B. Smith for the Senate to represent the radical element. Two of the delegates are authority for the statement that he would secure the nomination.

Prior to the meeting two special features of the business to come up were given out by delegates. One was that the Convention had decided upon a single plank as a solution of all the objects of the party, and this could be embodied in few words. Those words are all that go to make the significance of the term "Annexation." The next point is a move in favor of D. B. Smith for the Senate to represent the radical element. Two of the delegates are authority for the statement that he would secure the nomination.

Prior to the meeting two special features of the business to come up were given out by delegates. One was that the Convention had decided upon a single plank as a solution of all the objects of the party, and this could be embodied in few words. Those words are all that go to make the significance of the term "Annexation." The next point is a move in favor of D. B. Smith for the Senate to represent the radical element. Two of the delegates are authority for the statement that he would secure the nomination.

Prior to the meeting two special features of the business to come up were given out by delegates. One was that the Convention had decided upon a single plank as a solution of all the objects of the party, and this could be embodied in few words. Those words are all that go to make the significance of the term "Annexation." The next point is a move in favor of D. B. Smith for the Senate to represent the radical element. Two of the delegates are authority for the statement that he would secure the nomination.

Prior to the meeting two special features of the business to come up were given out by delegates. One was that the Convention had decided upon a single plank as a solution of all the objects of the party, and this could be embodied in few words. Those words are all that go to make the significance of the term "Annexation." The next point is a move in favor of D. B. Smith for the Senate to represent the radical element. Two of the delegates are authority for the statement that he would secure the nomination.

Prior to the meeting two special features of the business to come up were given out by delegates. One was that the Convention had decided upon a single plank as a solution of all the objects of the party, and this could be embodied in few words. Those words are all that go to make the significance of the term "Annexation." The next point is a move in favor of D. B. Smith for the Senate to represent the radical element. Two of the delegates are authority for the statement that he would secure the nomination.

Prior to the meeting two special features of the business to come up were given out by delegates. One was that the Convention had decided upon a single plank as a solution of all the objects of the party, and this could be embodied in few words. Those words are all that go to make the significance of the term "Annexation." The next point is a move in favor of D. B. Smith for the Senate to represent the radical element. Two of the delegates are authority for the statement that he would secure the nomination.

Prior to the meeting two special features of the business to come up were given out by delegates. One was that the Convention had decided upon a single plank as a solution of all the objects of the party, and this could be embodied in few words. Those words are all that go to make the significance of the term "Annexation." The next point is a move in favor of D. B. Smith for the Senate to represent the radical element. Two of the delegates are authority for the statement that he would secure the nomination.

Prior to the meeting two special features of the business to come up were given out by delegates. One was that the Convention had decided upon a single plank as a solution of all the objects of the party, and this could be embodied in few words. Those words are all that go to make the significance of the term "Annexation." The next point is a move in favor of D. B. Smith for the Senate to represent the radical element. Two of the delegates are authority for the statement that he would secure the nomination.

Prior to the meeting two special features of the business to come up were given out by delegates. One was that the Convention had decided upon a single plank as a solution of all the objects of the party, and this could be embodied in few words. Those words are all that go to make the significance of the term "Annexation." The next point is a move in favor of D. B. Smith for the Senate to represent the radical element. Two of the delegates are authority for the statement that he would secure the nomination.

Prior to the meeting two special features of the business to come up were given out by delegates. One was that the Convention had decided upon a single plank as a solution of all the objects of the party, and this could be embodied in few words. Those words are all that go to make the significance of the term "Annexation." The next point is a move in favor of D. B. Smith for the Senate to represent the radical element. Two of the delegates are authority for the statement that he would secure the nomination.

Prior to the meeting two special features of the business to come up were given out by delegates. One was that the Convention had decided upon a single plank as a solution of all the objects of the party, and this could be embodied in few words. Those words are all that go to make the significance of the term "Annexation." The next point is a move in favor of D. B. Smith for the Senate to represent the radical element. Two of the delegates are authority for the statement that he would secure the nomination.

Prior to the meeting two special features of the business to come up were given out by delegates. One was that the Convention had decided upon a single plank as a solution of all the objects of the party, and this could be embodied in few words. Those words are all that go to make the significance of the term "Annexation." The next point is a move in favor of D. B. Smith for the Senate to represent the radical element. Two of the delegates are authority for the statement that he would secure the nomination.

Prior to the meeting two special features of the business to come up were given out by delegates. One was that the Convention had decided upon a single plank as a solution of all the objects of the party, and this could be embodied in few words. Those words are all that go to make the significance of the term "Annexation." The next point is a move in favor of D. B. Smith for the Senate to represent the radical element. Two of the delegates are authority for the statement that he would secure the nomination.

Prior to the meeting two special features of the business to come up were given out by delegates. One was that the Convention had decided upon a single plank as a solution of all the objects of the party, and this could be embodied in few words. Those words are all that go to make the significance of the term "Annexation." The next point is a move in favor of D. B. Smith for the Senate to represent the radical element. Two of the delegates are authority for the statement that he would secure the nomination.

Prior to the meeting two special features of the business to come up were given out by delegates. One was that the Convention had decided upon a single plank as a solution of all the objects of the party, and this could be embodied in few words. Those words are all that go to make the significance of the term "Annexation." The next point is a move in favor of D. B. Smith for the Senate to represent the radical element. Two of the delegates are authority for the statement that he would secure the nomination.

Prior to the meeting two special features of the business to come up were given out by delegates. One was that the Convention had decided upon a single plank as a solution of all the objects of the party, and this could be embodied in few words. Those words are all that go to make the significance of the term "Annexation." The next point is a move in favor of D. B. Smith for the Senate to represent the radical element. Two of the delegates are authority for the statement that he would secure the nomination.

Prior to the meeting two special features of the business to come up were given out by delegates. One was that the Convention had decided upon a single plank as a solution of all the objects of the party, and this could be embodied in few words. Those words are all that go to make the significance of the term "Annexation." The next point is a move in favor of D. B. Smith for the Senate to represent the radical element. Two of the delegates are authority for the statement that he would secure the nomination.

Prior to the meeting two special features of the business to come up were given out by delegates. One was that the Convention had decided upon a single plank as a solution of all the objects of the party, and this could be embodied in few words. Those words are all that go to make the significance of the term "Annexation." The next point is a move in favor of D. B. Smith for the Senate to represent the radical element. Two of the delegates are authority for the statement that he would secure the nomination.

Prior to the meeting two special features of the business to come up were given out by delegates. One was that the Convention had decided upon a single plank as a solution of all the objects of the party, and this could be embodied in few words. Those words are all that go to make the significance of the term "Annexation." The next point is a move in favor of D. B. Smith for the Senate to represent the radical element. Two of the delegates are authority for the statement that he would secure the nomination.

Prior to the meeting two special features of the business to come up were given out by delegates. One was that the Convention had decided upon a single plank as a solution of all the objects of the party, and this could be embodied in few words. Those words are all that go to make the significance of the term "Annexation." The next point is a move in favor of D. B. Smith for the Senate to represent the radical element. Two of the delegates are authority for the statement that he would secure the nomination.

Prior to the meeting two special features of the business to come up were given out by delegates. One was that the Convention had decided upon a single plank as a solution of all the objects of the party, and this could be embodied in few words. Those words are all that go to make the significance of the term "Annexation." The next point is a move in favor of D. B. Smith for the Senate to represent the radical element. Two of the delegates are authority for the statement that he would secure the nomination.

Prior to the meeting two special features of the business to come up were given out by delegates. One was that the Convention had decided upon a single plank as a solution of all the objects of the party, and this could be embodied in few words. Those words are all that go to make the significance of the term "Annexation." The next point is a move in favor of D. B. Smith for the Senate to represent the radical element. Two of the delegates are authority for the statement that he would secure the nomination.

Prior to the meeting two special features of the business to come up were given out by delegates. One was that the Convention had decided upon a single plank as a solution of all the objects of the party, and this could be embodied in few words. Those words are all that go to make the significance of the term "Annexation." The next point is a move in favor of D. B. Smith for the Senate to represent the radical element. Two of the delegates are authority for the statement that he would secure the nomination.

Prior to the meeting two special features of the business to come up were given out by delegates. One was that the Convention had decided upon a single plank as a solution of all the objects of the party, and this could be embodied in few words. Those words are all that go to make the significance of the term "Annexation." The next point is a move in favor of D. B. Smith for the Senate to represent the radical element. Two of the delegates are authority for the statement that he would secure the nomination.

Prior to the meeting two special features of the business to come up were given out by delegates. One was that the Convention had decided upon a single plank as a solution of all the objects of the party, and this could be embodied in few words. Those words are all that go to make the significance of the term "Annexation." The next point is a move in favor of D. B. Smith for the Senate to represent the radical element. Two of the delegates are authority for the statement that he would secure the nomination.

Prior to the meeting two special features of the business to come up were given out by delegates. One was that the Convention had decided upon a single plank as a solution of all the objects of the party, and this could be embodied in few words. Those words are all that go to make the significance of the term "Annexation." The next point is a move in favor of D. B. Smith for the Senate to represent the radical element. Two of the delegates are authority for the statement that he would secure the nomination.

CULLINGS FROM COURT.

The last will and testament of the late S. N. Castle was filed Friday afternoon. It is a simple instrument dated 13th June, 1893, and conveys all of the property, valued at $465,000, to the widow of deceased. The text of the will is as follows:

"In the name of God, Amen! I, Samuel N. Castle of Honolulu, Hawaiian Islands, being of sound and disposing mind and memory, and conscious of the uncertainty of life, do hereby make, publish and declare this to be my last will and testament, revoking all former wills by me at any time made or published.

"After payment of my just debts and funeral expenses, I give and bequeath to each of my surviving children one hundred dollars, and one hundred dollars to the two children of my deceased son, Charles Alfred Castle.

"All of the rest, residue and remainder of my property, both real and personal, I give, devise and bequeath to my beloved wife, Mary Castle, for her sole and separate use and behoof, and of her heirs and assigns forever.

"I hereby nominate and appoint my said wife as sole executrix of this will, to act without bonds.

"In witness whereof, I, Samuel N. Castle, have hereunto set my hand this thirtieth day of June, 1893, at the same time declaring it my last will and testament."

Witness my hand and seal of office, this 13th day of October, 1894.

JOHN KIDWELL, Notary Public.

OFF FOR BIRD ISLAND.

The Hawaiian Sails With Haves and Fleming.

At 9 o'clock this morning H. B. M. S. Hyacinth drew anchor and sailed away to Bird Island, taking Captain A. G. S. Haves, British Commissioner, and Sanford Fleming, one of the cable gentlemen. The course of the Hyacinth will be around the Western coast of Kauai and thence straight to Bird Island. The object of the visit is to look over the property for which Messrs. Fleming and Mercer for the cable company, are now negotiating with the Government.

Mr. Fleming was seen on the dock this morning a moment prior to his departure for the ship. He stated that the Hyacinth was going out for a cruise, and later admitted that the objective point was Bird Island. A day or two will be spent cruising around the island and Mr. Fleming, Captain Haves and Captain May expect to land upon it and expect an English preemption hereafter if possible. The Hyacinth is expected to return about next Friday.

CHURCH SERVICES.

CENTRAL UNION CHURCH.

Sunday, Oct. 14th.—Rev. Robert G. Hatching, D. D., will preach at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.

Sunday School at 9:45 a. m. Strangers cordially invited to all services.

Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor meeting at 6:30 p. m. Subject: "Christ's love to us: our love to Christ." John 13:1; Jer. 31:3; Luke 10:27. A cordial welcome for everybody.

Y. M. C. A. SERVICES.

Sunday, 11 a. m. at Oahu Jail; 1:15 p. m. at the Barracks; 3:30 p. m. Bible study at Y. M. C. A.; 6:30 p. m. Gospel praise service at Y. M. C. A.

ST. ANDREW'S CATHEDRAL.

The services of the Cathedral Congregation of St. Andrew's Cathedral for to-morrow are as follows: 6:30 a. m. Holy Communion; 11 a. m. Holy Communion and sermon; 7:30 p. m. evening sermon.

SECOND CONGREGATION.

The services of the Second Congregation of St. Andrew's Cathedral for to-morrow (Sunday) will be as follows: 9:45 a. m. morning prayer with sermon; Venite, Boyce in F; Te Deum; Woodard; Benedictus; Gilbert in E; flute; hymns 357 and 217; anthem; "What are these," by Stainer; 6:30 p. m. evening prayer with sermon; Magnificat; Atwood in F; Nunc Dimittis; Purcell in A; hymns 280, 256 and 18. Rev. Alex. Mackintosh, pastor. All are cordially invited.

CHRISTIAN MISSION.

Meetings at Harmony Hall, on King street, between Fort and Alakea streets. Preaching by Rev. T. D. Garvin, at 10:45 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Bible class at 10 a. m.

Morning theme: "Visions of healing waters."

Evening theme: "Three typical cases of conversion."

Come and share our joys. Seats free. All will be cordially welcomed.

METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH.

Rev. H. W. Peck, pastor. Sunday services: 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Morning subject: "The baptism of the Holy Spirit."

Evening subject: "Jesus Christ the Savior of all men."

Class meeting immediately after morning service.

Prayer-meeting on Wednesday at 7:30 p. m.

Meetings held in hall over Tracy's store, corner Fort and Hotel streets. Everybody welcome.

FOR THE WEEK.

Sunday, 7 a. m. hallelujah breakfast; 11 a. m. holiness meeting; 3 p. m. family gathering; 7:30 p. m. old time religion.